- (c) At the first reading a simple majority will table the motion for the next quarterly meeting.
- (d) At the second and final reading, the amending motion will require a two-thirds (2/3) majority of those voting for adoption, to be successful.

INTERPRETATION OF BY-LAWS

Article 5, Sections 1 and 2, and Article 6 clearly show that all Area Sub Councils elections must be completed prior to the first meeting of the fiscal election year of the Council.

All delegates' credentials having automatically under the above articles expired, it follows that, if Area Sub Councils have not held their elections, then those who hold office in the Unifor National Skilled Trades Council, or had been coming as a delegate, cannot be seated as a delegate.

CONCLUSION

Articles 5 and 6 be adhered to prior to first meeting of the Unifor National Skilled Trades Council in the fiscal election year starting October 1, 2014.
